

Topic	Extreme Earth
Texts	The Wolf Wilder by Katherine Rundell 'The Firebird': A Traditional Russian Tale	Survivors by David Long A Wolf called Wander by Rosanne Parry
Termly Christian values	Truthfulness	Compassion
Visits/visitors	Natural History Museum (tbc)
English	The Wolf Wilder : non-chronological reports about wolves, character profiles, poetry about icy landscapes and persuasive writing. The Firebird : sensory descriptions, descriptive dialogues, discussion texts, persuasive formal letters and poetry;	Survivors : disaster stories using sensory description and crafted dialogue and a newspaper article.
Maths	Place value, addition & subtraction; Decimals & fractions; Multiplication & division;	Measures & data; Algebra & ratio; Problem-solving & Reasoning.
Science	Sound	Animals including Humans
RE	Creation God the Father	God the Holy Spirit (Easter)
Humanities History Geography	Research Russia and neighbouring countries and find these on a map. Create an interactive map of the locations of the world's volcanoes and earthquakes.	Research a 'famous' volcano including information about the country's culture, people, language, food and music.
Art & Design	Artwork inspired by 'The Firebird' and 'The Wolf Wilder'.
Computing	Scratch & programming Variables: counting game, voting game. Random number, broadcast message: Animal race. Revise X-Y coordinates: BBC Bitesize activity. Turn right and left various angles. Repeat to draw shapes. Make a block to draw a square. Extension - make blocks to draw other shapes.
Design Technology	Design and make a 3D model of a volcano.

Music	Listen and respond to the music composed for the ballet 'The Firebird' by Igor Stravinsky. Work on a composition inspired by the wolf transforming into a different form.
PE	Multi-skills
Forest School	Building volcanoes, cooking, Easter activities
Languages	French conversation: Greetings, Numbers, Colours & Monet