Willows Class Assembly

Well done to Willows class for a wonderful assembly. Thank you to all the families who attended and stayed to visit Willows class and see all their progress.

'Well done Willows – you were amazing, so confident and happy'

'Loved seeing the children's hard work and hearing the lovely singing.'

Happy Puzzle Day & Shop

On Thursday 3rd April, children will be taking part in problem solving workshops run by the Happy Puzzle Company. Many thanks to the Billingshurst Lions who have funded this experience.

After school there will be a pop-up shop in the hall selling some of the wide range of puzzles. The range starts from £1.50 to £30 (not including VAT). The voucher attached with this newsletter entitles you to a free game for purchases over £30.

GOLDEN BOOK

When a child does something amazing, we like to celebrate the event in Friday's assembly.

- WILLOWS - Naomi for always being enthusiastic and using your growth mindset!
Ollie H for some lovely reading in phonics this week!
- OAKS - Esther for being kind and a good friend
Abe for always answering questions during lessons
- ASH - Eva for being a wonderful member of the Ash Class, we will really miss you.
Casey for working really hard on his spring poem
- SYCAMORES - Leanna for being a wonderful member of Sycamores Class. We will miss you!
Siennagrace and Sienna-Rose for creating fantastic rainforest diorama

Staff have golden tickets to give to children in Willows and Oaks. All golden tickets are put into a weekly draw. This week's winner is Reggie.

Kind regards

Jen Harvey and Jill Phillips
