Jeans for Genes day

Many thanks to all the children who wore denim today and raised money for Jeans for Genes.

We raised £101.08.

Pupil Voice

Well done to our KS2 pupils who have taken on responsible roles within our pupil voice teams. They are looking forward to embarking on new roles in the school.

Reading Ambassadors

Bunny, Jack, Sonny, Noah

School Council

Alice, Amelie, Vini, Brodie, Charlie

Worship Team

SEND Tea and Chat

Thursday 3rd October is our next SEND tea and chat event. Parent(s) of pupils whose children have any additional needs are invited to join us for a cuppa and a chat from 8.45am in the library. Information, signposting and sharing expertise and knowledge will be the only items on the agenda – the rest is up to you! Hazel Maxwell from the Early Help Service will be joining us to answer questions and signpost to services.

Clubs

Clubs are well attended this term. Monday's Art Club has a few spaces left if any pupils are interested. Windmills Club runs on a Wednesday until 5pm and there are some spaces available.

Family services at St Mary's Church, Shipley

This is a short informal service lasting for 45 minutes and including tea and coffee afterwards.

Sunday 13th October 10.00am - Harvest Festival

Sunday 17th November 10.00am – Family Service

Sunday 22nd December 6:00 pm – Carol Service

Tuesday 24th December 5:00 pm – Crib Service

GOLDEN BOOK

When a child does something amazing, we like to celebrate the event in Friday's assembly.

- WILLOWS - Quinn for amazing word blending in phonics.
 Arlo for making a lovely crocodile out of junk modelling.
- OAKS - Swaley for using phonics to help his writing.
 Ozzy for his character description sentences.
- ASH - Jacob for excellent word choices in English.
 Ella for brilliant numberline work in maths
- SYCAMORES - Noah for making his handwriting clearer and easier to read, well done!
 Jesse-James for working really hard in Maths. Well done!

Staff have golden tickets to give to children in Willows and Oaks. All golden tickets are put into a weekly draw. This week's winner is Frankieleslie

Kind regards
Jen Harvey and Jill Phillips
