Advance notice

The Dial Post to Shipley road (Swallows Lane) is facing a road closure from 8am Monday 18th to Friday 22nd November. Families coming from the Dial Post area will need to use an alternative route.

Equality and diversity

Black History month this year focussed on some key figures in recent and modern history. Nelson Mandela, Kamala Harris, Simone Biles all featured in assemblies, along with some of our favourite Two Tone and reggae music. Oaks class studied Rosa Parks, Ash class learned about refugees and Sycamores class studied Desmond Tutu and Martin Luther King,

Below is Shipley's winning entry in the national Show Racism the Red card poster competition.

Well done to Sienna-Rose who designed this amazing poster.

Voices in Nature project – Ash class

Children in Ash took part in the Young Arts project, working alongside a poet, Antosh, and recording their poetry. What a great way to celebrate our young poets.

Thank you to Jane and Antosh at the Young Arts project

Children in Need

The family and staff contributions raised over £100 today for Children in Need.

Amazing – thank you.

Class assemblies

Many thanks to all the parents who attended the Ash class assembly and stayed to see the dance and some of the children's class work. The children enjoyed the feedback and being able to perform their Roman dance.

'They have clearly loved learning about the Romans' 'Lovely of voices and happy faces'

'Gorgeous mix of reading and creative dance' 'The children's vocabulary in their writing is amazing'
