Early Bird Club

This breakfast runs every day from 8-8.40 am and is a club to support working families. The children have a choice of breakfast items and have time to play and socialise. The cost is £4 per child. Places are limited but we have one or two places available this term.

Calling all budding actors

St Marys Church in Shipley is seeking performers for the crib service at the church on Christmas Eve at 5pm. They are in need of shepherds, angels, king, Joseph and an innkeeper. It would be great to see some Shipley children involved in this special service as we have some talented performers.

Please contact the Church Warden, Gavin Kenny, if you are interested

GOLDEN BOOK

When a child does something amazing, we like to celebrate the event in Friday's assembly.

WILLOWS - Oliver Moss for great phonics. Ozzy for always being kind to everyone

OAKS - Emilie and Felix for always making good choices and being excellent role models with school work and behaviour

ASH - Mia, for a brilliant fireworks poem. Bunny for trying super hard with her handwriting

SYCAMORES - Bea and Eve for fantastic 'Scarab Beetle' poems. Amelia for contributing to class discussions

Staff have golden tickets to give to children in Willows and Oaks. All golden tickets are put into a weekly draw. This week's winner is Savanna.

Kind regards

Jen Harvey and Jill Phillips
